Historical Note: Paul Carus

Paul Carus, the first editor of The Monist, was born in Ilsenberg am Harz on July 18, 1852, and died in La Salle, Illinois, on February 11, 1919. After receiving his Ph.D. degree in philosophy and classical philology from Tübingen University in 1876, he taught briefly at the State Military Academy at Dresden. In search of freedom for expression of his independent views, he migrated first to England and then to the United States. In 1887, he accepted the invitation of Edward C. Hegeler (who later became his father-in-law) to edit The Open Court magazine, a monthly journal devoted primarily to comparative religion. In 1888, The Monist was established as a quarterly journal of the philosophy of science, and Paul Carus served as editor of both journals and as editor of the Open Court Publishing Company until his death in 1919.

FORMAT AND STYLE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MONIST

1. FIRST PUBLICATION: Papers can be considered for THE MONIST only if (a) they have not previously been published elsewhere, and (b) they are not being considered for publication elsewhere.
2. DUPLICATE COPIES: Two clear copies of the MS should be submitted, and these will not be returned. An additional copy should, of course, be retained by the author.
3. LENGTH: The suggested length for MONIST articles is 4,000 to 8,000 words, or about 10 to 20 double-spaced, typewritten pages, including all notes, with about one inch margins on all sides.
4. STYLE and SPELLING GUIDES: University of Chicago Press, A Manual of Style, 13th edition revised 1982; The Random House Dictionary of the English Language; or the Oxford English Dictionary for authors who follow British usage.
5. FOOTNOTES: Footnotes or references should be typed double-spaced in a separate section, and numbered consecutively. They will be printed at the end of the paper. The first mention of a book or journal article should have complete bibliographical information (for books, the publisher's name should be included and for journal articles the volume and date of the journal should be included). "Op. cit." should be replaced by an abbreviated reference—see University of Chicago, A Manual of Style, 13th ed., p. 489.
6. PERMISSION TO QUOTE from works in copyright must be obtained by the author. See "fair use" in the University of Chicago Manual of Style.
7. GALLEY PROOFS: No part of an article can be rewritten in galley or page proofs. Any addenda on galley proofs other than corrections of typographical errors may be disregarded at the discretion of the Editor.
8. OFFPRINTS can be ordered only at the time galleys are sent to the author for proofreading.
9. CROSS REFERENCES: Wherever possible the author should cite section numbers rather than page numbers when making cross references to his own paper, in order to eliminate resetting in page proofs.
10. QUOTATION MARKS: Mentioned terms or expressions are enclosed in single quotation marks with no intervening punctuation. Otherwise standard American literary usage is to be followed, as stipulated, e.g., in the University of Chicago Manual of Style. Special conventions, if followed consistently, are permitted where formal language is used.
11. SPECIAL TYPOGRAPHY: Diagrams, tables, and illustrations should be on separate sheets with their desired position in the text clearly indicated. Symbolic formulae appearing as separate lines should be clearly distinguished in the text. Foreign letters (Greek, German, etc.), special symbols, as well as zero and capital O and prime marks should be indicated in the margin. Materials to be printed in italics, especially single letters in text or in formulae, should be underlined.

COLÓQUIO: A FILOSOFIA DO SÉCULO XVII E A TRADIÇÃO

27-30 DE OUTUBRO 1997

A Associação Nacional de Estudos Filosóficos do Século XVII e o Programa de Pós-Graduação em Filosofia da UFMG anunciam a realização do colóquio A Filosofia do Século XVII e a Tradição, em Belo Horizonte, nos dias 27-30 de outubro de 1997.

Professores e alunos de pós-graduação que desenvolvem pesquisa sobre temas pertinentes ao colóquio são convidados a submeterem propostas de comunicação e mesa-redonda (máximo de quatro pessoas reunidas em torno de um mesmo tema) para apreciação do Conselho Científico da Associação. As propostas devem ser individuais, entre oito e doze páginas (espaço duplo) e devem ser enviadas até o dia 31 de julho de 1997 ao Prof. José R. Maia Neto – Departamento de Filosofia – FAFICH – UFMG – Av. Antônio Carlos, 6627 – Caixa Postal 253 – CEP 31270-901 – Belo Horizonte-MG.

Face às dificuldades de obtenção de financiamento, os pesquisadores interessados em apresentar comunicações no colóquio devem buscar os recursos necessários para o custeio da passagem em seus respectivos estados. A organização do colóquio arcará com as despesas relativas à estadia em Belo Horizonte dos participantes cujas propostas tiverem sido aceitas pelo Conselho Científico da Associação.
